VERi Vinduro, Castella
plus A4DE Update, Supercross Results and more
30th October 2016

On the eve of the 2016 Australian Four Day Enduro, this weekend's final VERi Vinduro of the year was a reminder of how off-road racing used to look – the bikes are a fair bit different to the technologically advanced machines today, and the riders? Well they are quite a bit different too! Age takes its toll on both man and machine!

The Castella VERi Vinduro promised tight single trail and didn't disappoint. The property is a ranch surrounded by hills off the east side of the Kinglake National Park and giving the riders plenty of mid-level challenges including muddy bits, steep hills, tight winding overgrown single trail and the odd helmet knocking leaning tree.

There was plenty of time before rider's briefing to walk around the bikes and chat to mates

The Huskys of Alan and Jim Laidler

This bargain pair for sale were quickly snapped up

*Is that for you or for the bike?
I think you need a bit more than that to get an XR going*

Honda 125 with shotgun pipe

Rider's briefing occurred as a few spits of rain fell. Property owner Steve Juzva joined VERi President Paul Kalika in welcoming the riders then Juzzy went through the totem pole of enduro signs "the left arrow means turn left" and so on. And the State Team Trophy from Harrow was presented to the IT riders from Canberra, the Vinduro Penrite Team.

Harrow winners: Mark, Phill, Sarah and Craig from ACT

Then it was time to stop talking and start riding. Riders were let off in groups of three at 1 minute intervals but after that the formalities stopped and it was a case of ride till you can't ride anymore.

There's still no riding for me, but me and photographer Jo both had cameras today and headed out in opposite directions to bring you these shots:

Geoff Morris waves them off

Some needed more waving than others

Jimbo Laidler

John McClean, Hodaka 125 1973

Steve Juzva and Paul Stacker must have burnt up 20 litres of petrol through their chainsaws to clear the tracks of fallen trees. This trunk has the words "Hells Gate" engraved at head height.

The vinduro environment is always happy and friendly, even out on the trail, with riders apologizing for getting too close to the photographer (even though I might have been standing on the edge of the single trail). Some even gave me a few special moments:

Peter Sutcliffe, 1977 IT400, got off the line and needed a helping hand

Tight enclosed trails

and wide open spaces

Curtis Pullinger seems to bring something different along to each event, DT500

CanAm

Time to head back

and kick back

We had to head off around midday leaving the 50 or more riders to enjoy the afternoon session with rain thankfully holding off till later in the day. It was great to catch up with the vinduro scene again and I look forward to next year when I will have another little project up and running.

The VERi Committee have presented their members with a terrific year of riding this year and their enthusiasm in volunteering their time and energy must be applauded. So many thanks to Paul Kalika, Leisha and Jamie Aked, Rachelle Wilkinson (First Aid), Mick Pettifer, Geoff Morris, the sweeps including Sean Jarvis, Pete and Neil Street (MCRCV mates) and to Steve Juzva, Paul Stacker and team for the use of the property and all the track work.

The President Paul tells us that 2017 is shaping up to be another busy year with the established events remaining on the calendar including the Broadford Bike Bonanza trail ride at Easter, and Harrow on the last weekend of July. Stay in touch via Facebook or www.verivinduro.com.au

If you think you have some more racing in you, Victorian Classic Motocross have invited VERi members to join them for their last round at Stony Creek next weekend, Sunday 6th Nov:

Want to race your vinduro bike at Victorian Classic Motocross (VCM)?

Yes it's true VCM are inviting VERi club members to compete at the iconic property of John Boag at Stony Creek near Leongatha. We are scheduling 3 Vinduro only races on the day. As well you are most welcome to jump in with the VCM guys in their races depending on the eligibility of your machine and your age. It goes without saying 1985 is the cut off date! We are also catering for Pre 85 MX on the day so there are even more events to compete in if the body is up to it.

AUSTRALIAN FOUR DAY ENDURO

14-19th November, Merrijig

Just three weeks from today scrutineering and track walking will take place for the 2016 Yamaha Australian Four Day Enduro at Merrijig near Mansfield, Victoria. Behind the scenes the hard work is being done to make sure the riders, their support teams and the spectators have an event to remember. The Dandenong MCC and Kooweerup MCC crews have been working on marking trails and cutting in special tests – here's some of the latest photos:

Some of the guys up there preparing tracks over the last few months include Bryan Noble, Frank Gogol, Jake Gogol, Tony Lee, Steve Mason, Terry Corkery, Don Atkins, Kooweerup and Dandenong clubs. A huge effort and much appreciated.

And bring some coin with you for a piece of merchandise to remind you of the event – here are the designs for this year.

Can't wait to throttle thrash this mean machine at the Aussie 4 Day Enduro in a few weeks against the fast kids in E1. Thanks Grabbo and @ktm.australia and hopefully we'll see a heap of you locals there to check out the action!!!! (Shane Watts, FB page)

FROM SPEEDWAY TO THE ENDURO WAY

Max Fricke, World Under 21 Speedway Champion will be having a go at his first enduro when he races at the A4DE. Motorcycling Australia had the interview:

MANSFIELD speedway superstar Max Fricke will next month take part in Australia's biggest enduro event – the 2016 Yamaha Australian Four Day Enduro – in his very own backyard from November 14-19. The Under 21 speedway world champion will try his hand at another exciting motorcycling discipline, enduro, when the A4DE revs into Mansfield next month.

Max, who was this week named as a reserve rider for the 2017 FIM World Speedway GP, is excited to be giving enduro a go next week. "The fact that it's taking place in my hometown it's pretty exciting. I'm really looking forward to it," Max said.

“Obviously, enduro is not my main discipline, but motocross has been something that I’ve really enjoyed over the years and I have done quite a lot of in my early days so to come out and do enduro will be a bit of fun,” Max said.

“I haven’t done any off-road events before so it’ll be a bit of a learning curve but it will all be about having fun and enjoying Merrijig and my hometown whilst I’m back,” he added.

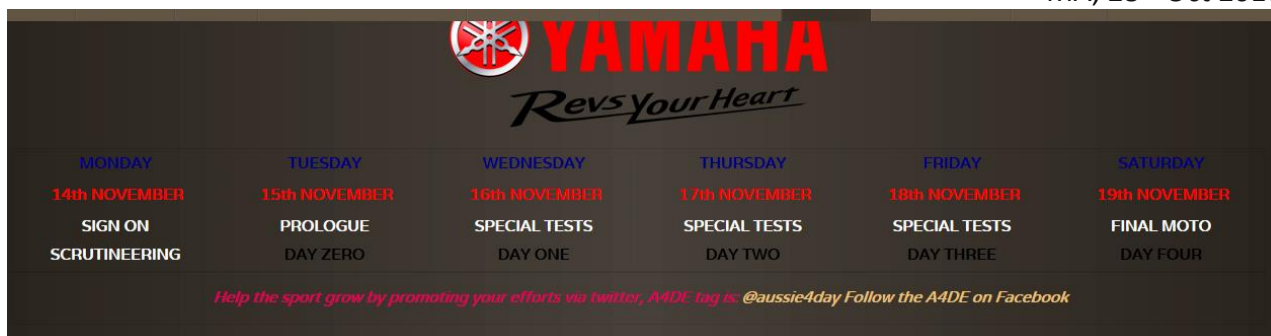

The 2016 Yamaha A4DE will start on Monday, November 15, where riders from across the country will have the chance to set-up and walk the track before Prologue begins on Tuesday, November 16 where the top 20 riders from last year’s event will start in the top 20 starting order based on their prologue times this year.

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, riders will compete in a challenging course approximately 250 kilometres long constructed of trails and tests suitable for all riders before their final moto on Saturday, November 19.

Aside from Fricke, big name riders will compete in the A4DE such as the return of Australian stars Josh Green, Daniel Milner, Daniel Sanders and current EnduroGP World Champion Matt Phillips.

“I’m fortunate enough now that I can get out there and try it so hopefully I can get a bit of practice and preparation in the next few weeks,” Max said. “For me, it’ll just all be about having fun and enjoying it,” he added.

2016 AUSTRALIAN SUPERCROSS SERIES UPDATE ROUND 3,

Round 3 of the Penrite Australian Supercross championships took place last weekend at the Adelaide Showgrounds.

Victoria's Tomas Ravenhorst #188 breaks into the top 10 after 3 rounds – finished 8th today

TODD WATERS – SX1 (DNF)

“It was a bit of a devastating night for me – we had good speed in the heat race, so to go down in the main event in the whoops again is really disappointing,” Waters shared.

“Usually whoops are my strong point, and it’s normally a part of the track that I feel quickest, so I think now we’ll go back and figure some bits and pieces out, maybe try a few different things and hopefully turn it around in Melbourne.

“Given the preparation that we had we with MXoN, and not having all that much time for Supercross our speed is quite good, and we can’t expect too much, but I just want to win, so we’ll reassess and see what we can do at the next round.” (Interview by KJAX.net)
